

TSGP Conference Call Summary
May 25, 2011
1:00PM EST

Opening Comments:

Hello and thank you for calling in. As many of you know the Transportation Security Grant Program (TSGP) Grant Guidance was issued on May 19, 2011. We have begun our outreach workshops, five have been completed and we have two remaining. One in San Francisco, CA tomorrow May 26th, and the last workshop in Bothell (Seattle), WA, on Friday May 27th.

We wanted to cover a few key dates for the submittal of your applications. The deadline for submitting your SF-424 is June 27, 2011 and must be processed thru grants.gov. All other standard and required application forms, such as your IJs, budgets, etc. must be submitted no later than 11:59pm EDT, July 5, 2011 via ND grants. This year is a little bit different as you will need to use both systems in order to submit your application. If you are not registered with one or either of these systems, please try and do that now so you will not encounter any delays in your submittal process.

We would like to use the weekly conference calls to answer any questions you may have throughout the application process. Any questions and answers given in these calls, as well as in the workshops, will be posted to TSA Grants (www.tsa.gov/grants). The website will be updated no less than once a week.

At this time we would like to open the line to any questions.

Questions and Answers:

No questions.
