

Visual Observation

OLC Course Recommendations

Competency Definition

Notices details and pays attention to instructions, demonstrations, and other activities. Takes in and recall incoming visual sensory information and use it to make predictions, comparison, and/or evaluations. Recognizes difference or similarities, or sensing challenges in circumstances of events. Discerns between relevant visual cues or information and irrelevant or distracting information. Visually inspects persons, property, or equipment.

OLC Component Titles

At this time, no OLC general professional development courses related to this competency are available.