

Submit a Privacy Act Request

The Privacy Act serves to balance the government's need to maintain information about individuals with the rights of individuals to be protected against unwarranted invasions of their privacy stemming from federal agencies' collection, maintenance, use, and disclosure of personal information about them.

Individuals may request access to information about themselves, request amendment or correction of those records, and request an accounting of disclosures of their records by the Department.

Required Information

If you believe that the Transportation Security Administration has records on you, please submit the following information:

- List your full name, current address, date of birth, and place of birth.
- Explain why you believe the Agency would have information on you. Describe an experience or incident that makes you believe the Agency has such information.
- Specify when you believe the records were created.
